YMCA Day Camp Character Code of Conduct Contract

The YMCA Day Camp strives to provide an environment in which children can develop meaningful relationships, acquire new skills, and be engaged in activities that improve their spiritual, physical, and mental well-being. The four pillars of YMCA Character Development are Respect, Responsibility, Caring and Honesty.

As staff demonstrate these characteristics, we ask that your child honor these important character traits as well by agreeing to the following Character Contract.

Please read through the Character Contract with your child and acknowledge your mutual agreement to the contents of the Character Contract during registration.

Day Camp Character Code of Conduct Contract

My child(ren) and I agree to honor and support the attributes of good character while participating in YMCA Day Camp:

Speak with Respect

I will choose to speak respectfully to and about other campers and staff. I will not have harmful conversations about others, discuss inappropriate topics, or use inappropriate language or gestures.

Listen to Staff

I will honor staff's directions the first time I am asked or told to do something.

Play Fairly

I will play in all activities that I have been given permission to do so and will play fair, following instructions, and respecting others' rights to play. I will not physically hurt or act aggressively toward others. If I need help expressing my feelings with words, I will ask a camp counselor for help and will keep my hands and feet to myself.

Be Accountable

I will remain with my assigned group of fellow campers and counselors at all times to ensure my safety while at the YMCA Day Camp.

Be Caring

I will ask permission to use toys, games, and equipment. I will care for these items while I am enjoying them so that my fellow campers can have the same experience. I will help care for the YMCA property by cleaning up after myself and returning toys, games, and equipment to their proper place when I am done enjoying them.
